CLASS OF 1939

You are eagerly standing on the line, straining to hear the sound of the gun which is to project you into the next great adventure.

You are to love truth and justice and right, to hear the cry of distress, the plea of honor, the agony of wrong, to espouse virtue, strengthen peace, remove discord, to labor honestly, eat bread that is earned, give to the poor, help the unfortunate, to live the life of a creature of God.

I thrill at the thought of what awaits you. To be young is the best and the most dangerous gift of life. I call to you from a generation in advance. I reach my hand across the years, nay, more truly, I am sent back to be your companion on the march.

Let us take the road that goes upward.

It is my wish that you and I may take out of our lives all those things which have no true value, and that we may find time to give unselfish service to those we meet on our way. May we have the joy and satisfaction which comes only to those who live nobly and serve well.

Carl F. Doebler, Principal

Our Principal

It is our sincere hope that we have had apart in preparing you for your chosen place in life; and that your work in Rossford High School will be forever a source of satisfaction and a pleasant memory.

Class History

Four short years ago ninety-seven enthusiastic freshmen stood on the lowest step of high school life. We sought to establish our social position under the leadership of President Elizabeth Maddock, Vice President Clara Belle Myers, Secretary-Treasurer Cecilia Minarcin. We were represented in school activities, especially music and sports.

After a year of orientation, we found ourselves upon the step marked "Sophomore." We elected Pres. Madelon Juergens, Vice Pres. Charles Brown, Sec.-Treas. Cecilia Minarcin. We made our social debut with the "Sophomore Spring Spree." We again were represented in music and sports.

We stepped lightly upon the "Junior" step and discovered the round of responsibilities and activities which a junior must assume. To meet our duties we chose Pres. Madelon Juergens, Vice-Pres. Charles Brown, Sec.-Treas. Cecilia Minarcin, as our class officials. Our J-Hop was one of the most successful dances given in the history of the school. Our Class play "Meet Uncle Sally" proved our outstanding dramatic ability. To finance our class obligations we released a flock of persistent salesmen. The proceeds were used to fete our distinguished guests at the Junior-Senior Banquet held at the Waldorf Hotel. The Melody Maids contributed enjoyably to the success of the dance which followed the banquet. Three students were honored by memberships in the National Honor Society. John Johnson, Madelon Juergens, and Albert Selmek.

As seniors we culminate our four years of work. Our officers are; Pres., Joseph Richards, Vice-Pres., Madelon Juergens, Sec., Cecilia Minarcin, Treas., Charles Cearley. One of the first social events of the year was our Senior Sport Dance. Later in the year we all enjoyed ourselves at a Senior Class Party held in the Gymnasium. Having become very deft in the art of histrionic productions, we successfully presented "Smilin' Through." Elizabeth Maddock, Harold Werner, Agnes Badik, Charles Cearley, Hazel Edwards, Mary Gladish, Cecilia Minarcin, and Stella Mazur were elected members of the National Honor Society. Never will the Junior-Senior Ball be forgotten by us grateful seniors. A Commencement Supper terminated our get-togethers in high school life.

We have climbed to the top in high school life but realize that we must continue to advance in order to be successful.

"By our own efforts we hope to rise"

UNDER-GRADUATES

Our Successors

The Class of 1940, with an eye on the Junior-Senior Ball, entered its Junior year with a vengeance. We managed to keep the school from starving with candy and hot dogs, and kept them entertained with the Junior Play, "Crashing Society," directed by Mr. Troutner, the J-Hop, and dances after home basketball games.

Remembering that all work and no play makes Jack a dull boy, Edward Badik, Lawrence Brooks, Steve Chromik, John Coffman, Herb Crawford, Jim Kelly, Stanley Klepacz, Don Potter, Bert Radocy, Bob Smith, Edward Stricker, Val Vascik, Bill Vishi, and Gus Zdybek found time to represent the class in athletics.

Myrtle Caza, Steve Chromik, Jenny Lou Givens, Vern Jones, Vincent Pavlica, Edward Platakis, Don Potter, Val Vascik, Don Walters, Moses Wright in the band and orchestra and William Alston, Marion Brooks, Steve Chromik, Helen Duricek, Frances Elkins, Margaret Holmes, Nellie LaHote, Rose Lasonsky, Doris McDorman, Cecilia Przysiecki, Vivian Rist, Mary Ann Sedlak, Sophie Smietana, and Moses Wright in the Chorus upheld the melodic wing of the class in the music department.

The biggest innovation of the year was the introduction of the Junior-Senior Ball which was held May 29.

So, flushed with honors in athletics, music, and social functions, the Junior Class, heaving a sigh, relinquishes its distinctive name to its successor.

ATHLETICS

We applaud . . . . .

The results of this year's football season will be placed among the high averages of our school's football history. It is the direct result of true cooperation among the players, Coach Lerch, and Assistant Coach Weis.

Our Bulldogs began the season by holding Waite's powerful team to 25 points. The final score was Waite 25 Rossford 0.

After a rest period of two weeks, the Bulldogs invaded Genoa and out-played that team to the tune of 31-6.

The following week at Perrysburg, the Bulldogs felt the sting of defeat administered by the Yellow Jackets. The score was 7-0.

The Bulldogs then journeyed to Oak Harbor and defeated them 13-0.

One week later the team traveled to Fremont, Coach Lerch's home town, and defeated St. Joseph 25-0.

The next game scheduled was with Galion. There was no game however, because Galion failed to appear.

In the game with Lima Central, at Lima, Ohio, the Bulldogs were hindered by a slow start. The final score was Lima Central 15 Rossford 13.

The final game of the season was played in the soup of Rossford's field. The drenched victim was Wauseon. The score was 19-0.

If future teams display the cooperation and sportsmanship, that was displayed by this year's team, Rossford High School may look forward to many more successful football seasons.

Our Varsity team this season displayed clean sportsmanship, won hard fought victories, and made a fine showing for Rossford High School.

This year only two lettermen are leaving, Capt. Charles Brown and John Kusner. It is hoped the remaining boys will return next year, and with the experience they now possess, form a nucleus for next year's team.

The printing of an annual in a school shop is quite unusual, and Rossford Hi School printing Departament should be congratulated for attempting so difficult a project. A great amount of extra time must be necessarily spent to do a creditable job. Those whose pictures appear on this page have spent many, many extra-class hours in printing this book, and they deserve special recognition for their endeavors. The students are listed from left to right according to the extra time spent after school and at nights. Especially do we recognize the splendid efforts of Chester Waclawski, former print shop student.

The Staff sincereiy thanks Mr. Doebler for his meritorious work in sponsoring and planning the printing of our book, and for his time and effort which he unselfishly contributed.

The purpose of the Rossford Hi-Y Club, an affiliate of the Y. M. C. A. is "to create, maintain, and extend throughout the school and community, high standards of Christian character."

This year we initiated a program of vocational guidance in our meetings. We assisted the Girl Reserves and Visual Instruction Committee in a program featuring Faust White's Serenaders, S. R. O., by the way. We carried on general Hi-Y - G. R. work including Sunday afternoon Forums, and a week-end at Camp Storer. Mr. Stollberg and four boys went to the Older Boys' Conference held at Massillon, Ohio, returning with many ideas for the betterment of the club. The Hi-Y is looking forward to many more years of service to the school.

Service Is A Habit . . .

The projection squad is a group of boys under the direction of Mr. Stollberg, who have given their time so that the student body might have the advantage of visual education. Both educational and entertaining pictures have been presented.

Each member of the squad must know how to connect and run the sound system and the projector. He must also know how to repair the film and the equipment.

The equipment now being used is worth approximately twelve hundred dollars. Some of this equipment was purchased with the proceeds of a magazine campaign which was conducted by the high school.

An average of ten to twelve units of slides and movies are shown each week to about twenty-five classes.

Members of the Squad: Patton, Schmek, R. Harrison, Mr. Stollberg, W. Harrison, Sizemore, Cearley, Mileski, Gallagher, Boenke, Rovnan, Webb.

We assist . .

Librarians: Croons. Brooks. Skaggs. Bayer, Brown, Bodart. Minarcin, Miss Barthold, Badik. Doebler, Chromik.

The library staff, directed by Miss Barthold, is made up of voluntary workers from the senior high school.

The girls keep a record of books in the files and on the shelf, mend torn pages, and help students select appropriate books. They also operate a stationery stand. The profits from this are used to purchase library supplies and new books.

Each member of the staff after three years of service receives a library R in recognition of her work.

Our Students . . .

The purpose of the monitors is, "To promote a feeling of friendship and cooperation among the members of the organization, to enact and follow the rules of the organization, and to improve social conditions of the student body."

The monitor's slogan is " Be prepared and on duty always."

The organization, including both seniors and juniors, was chosen this year by a committee composed of the presidents of the senior class, the Hi-Y, and the Girl Reserves, and a senior, Amelia Hussar. The approval of the principal is dependent upon the character of each individual nominated.

Juniors are selected so that experience may be gained for service in their senior year.

The officers are:

Music for Our Ears

The band is a very popular organization of our school. It made its presence known in spirit as well as in sound at our pep meetings and at our football games. It furnished music for some of our chapel programs and played for political rallies. Participation in the Bowling Green Music Festival culminated the year's work.

Mr. Nold, our bandmaster as well as inspirator, has worked untiringly, with one ideal in mind -- to build a band that will heighten the glory of our school. To him and to the band we owe unanimous thanks.

Message . . . . . .

DEAR ALUMNUS,

The names of your former classmates and their places of employment are recorded on the following few pages. We have attempted to make these pages as accurate as possible; however, occupational changes may have occurred since we released our copy.

It is interesting to note that, although our high school is compartively young, our alumni are distributed from the eastern to the western coast, and our country to South America.

It is our wish that as you read these pages you will recall many pleasant memories.

Sincerely, THE STAFF

Amateur Dramatists

SMILIN' THROUGH

"Smilin' Through" the annual Senior Play was presented on April 28, in the High School Auditorium.

"Smilin' Through," is the story of an ancient tragedy visited on the heads of the younger generation.

It deals with a tragedy fifty years back, when a rejected suitor shoots the woman he pretends to love on the night of her wedding. As the years pass a boy and girl of the younger generation of these families fall in love

How the spirit of the slain girl comes "Smilin' Through," to help the young lovers make up the main theme and one of the thrilling highlights of this sensational comedy-drama.

It has in it all of the romance and fantasy of the powerful love drama and all the glittering humor of the rollicking comedy piece.

Its success was due largely to the excellent direction of Mrs. Sheffler. The cast enjoyed putting on the play, and received great benefits through the experience.

Characters were: Bob Harrison, Russell Frantschi, Harold Werner, Albert Selmek, Madelon Juergens, Alice Cearley, Ann Piotrowski, Edward Mileski, George Andrye, Neil Patton, Betty Maddock, Rajchel Sweede, Dan Cole, Joseph Richards, Ruth Crawford, Hazel Edwards.

CRASHING SOCIETY

On December 17th, 1938, the Junior Class presented their annual play, "Crashing Society", a comedy in three acts, directed by H. R. Troutner, with the following cast:

Adam Dunnigan, the husband; and loyal subject	Donald Gallagher
Elsie Dunnigan, the wife; and ruler of the Dunnigan home	Betty Yoo
Marguerite, their elder daughter	Joan Holst
George, their son	William Harrison
Christabel, their younger daughter	Helen Duricek
Scruples-Scruples, their butler	Robert Webb
Miss Gadgett, a tutor	Bernice Dombroviak
Mr. Van Witherspoon, leader in New York society	John Coffman
Mrs. Van Witherspoon, his wife	Ethel Radocy
Cyril Van Witherspoon, their son	Jack Wallace
Agatha Mulrooney, virtuoso?	Doris McDorman
Miss Louise Miller, a reporter	Stefania Ochendszko

Adam Dunnigan, a common, ordinary farmer, inherits a million dollars. His wife makes known her intent of crashing society and transports the whole family to New York. Marguerite, having been to college, has acquired a certain amount of poise, and sympathizes somewhat with her father and with her brother George, who is a chip off the old block head. Christabel is much excited over the prospect of crashing society, hopes to marry into the "aristocracy" and writes "poetry." The whole family is annoyed by the lame-brained English butler, Scruples-Scruples, who was hired because "it was the thing to do." To persuade Elsie that she should return to Jerkwater, Adam hires the Van Witherspoons and Agatha Mulrooney to come to a reception and appear enthusiastic. To rid himself of his money Adam buys ten worthless bonds from Mr. Van Witherspoon for nine hundred thousand dollars only to find out a few minutes later that they are worth five million dollars. In the meantime Marguerite announces her intention of marrying Cyril, Adam persuades Elsie to go back to Jerkwater, and "everybody lives happily ever after".

The financing of an annual is a great task and without the help of the advertisers it would be almost impossible.

The space sold to our advertisers is not only an income source to us, but also performs a real service for them. We have provided the opportunity for a permanent good will ad of repetitious value to be presented to potential customers.

We thank our advertisers for their cooperation and hope that you will patronize their establishments whenever possible.

Achievement

This annual is an achievement of which the entire school and staff may well be proud.

Saving is the Measure of Civilization

The civilized man of progress looks forward to next week, next month, next year, ten years hence, or to his old age. He provides for his needs and desires, for emergencies, opportunities, comforts and pleasures. He does it by industry and steady saving.

MIRRORS

Express and reflect the Mode of today . . .

The ageless romance and fascination of sparkling glass . . . crystal clear . . . bring charm and broader decorative vision to this distinctive room.

Mirrors, more than any other feature of decoration, stimulate imagination and ingenuity in the creation of modern interiors—express and reflect the mode of today. Mirrors bring a subtle inference of greater spaciousness to rooms . . . brighten far corners with reflected light. And beauty, whether of some favored view or the engaging colors of the decorative scheme, is repeated.

Such intriguing effects in infinite variety are best obtained with L·O·F Quality Polished Plate Glass, notable for exceptional brilliance and freedom from imperfections. It is available in three shades of blue, a peach and a green, in addition to clear plate. Specify this finer plate glass. Your local L·O·F distributor will gladly cooperate with you in any problem of design or application. Libbey·Owens·Ford Glass Company, Toledo, Ohio.
